CLASS OF 1964

In the fall of 1960, one-hundred and eleven members began their freshman year at Milton Union. Sue Vien and Scott Traynor represented the freshman class at the Christmas Formal.

We began our sophomore year with one-hundred and nine members. Our representatives at the Christmas Formal were Sue Vien and DuWayne Stork.

With the beginning of our junior year our enrollment had decreased to ninety-four members. Selected to go to Badger Girls' State was Mary Lou McBride and to Badger Boys' State, Wm. Berger and Robt. Berger. Vickie Clark and John Janes represented us at the Christmas Formal. The Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom was the biggest project of our junior year. The speaker at the banquet was Mr. Zacharias; the theme, "Hawaiian Paradise." Michael Jones and Vickie Rhoades reigned as king and queen.

Our senior year began with ninety-two members working towards graduation. The senior class again sponsored the Homecoming Dance. The theme chosen was "Blue Velvet." Michael Jones and Linda Hull reigned as king and queen of Homecoming activities.

MILTON UNION 19 VERONA 0

Greg Garnett passed to Ken Oberbruner, the play covering 57 yards for the first T.D. of the season; Bass plunged for the point. Milton drove 40 yards for its second T.D.; Bass plunging the last three and Milton led 13-0 at the half. Mike Jones recovered a fumble on the Verona 20 yard line in the 4th quarter and Knudsen accounted for the last 9 yards on a tour of the right end.

MILTON UNION 6 WATERLOO 19

Milton Union waged a tremendous defensive struggle with Waterloo before injuries and fatigue caught up with the Redmen in the final quarter. Both teams broke a scoreless tie in the third quarter with successful drives. The Redmen scored on a short pass from Gary Morehart to Dennis Hulbert, and then Waterloo did the rest of the scoring to win the game.

MILTON UNION 13 LAKE MILLS 20

Knudsen capped a 60 yard drive with an 11 yard scoring run for Milton Union's first T.D. However, the Redmen trailed 7-6 at halftime. Morehart went to the air in the final minutes of the game, completing two key passes to Ken Oberbruner and swept right end for the final three yards and a T.D. A pass to Oberbruner was good for the extra point.

MILTON UNION 0 LODI 28

The Unionites marched with the opening kickoff to the four-yard line where we fumbled and Lodi recovered it. Then they went ahead and scored in every quarter to win 28-0 over M.U.

MILTON UNION 7 EVANSVILLE 7

Roger Bass scored in the first quarter on a stolen ball play. He took the ball out of the Evansville quarterback's hands and raced 70 yards for Milton Union's lone T.D. A pass from Ken Oberbruner to Dean Nottingham was good for the extra point and a disappointing tie for M.U.

MILTON UNION 14 OREGON 33

George Knudsen registered on a nine yard end run and Gary Morehart passed to Larry Roberts for the point. Gregg Garnett passed to Morehart, a toss of eight yards and a run of 32, for a second T.D. which put the Unionites ahead at halftime 14-13 when Morehart passed to Ken Oberbruner for the point. Then Oregon went ahead to win 33-14.

MILTON UNION 6 DEFOREST 20

The most spectacular play of the season came in the third quarter after the Redmen defense held, on its own two yard line. Quarterback Gary Morehart swept end on a keeper-play and broke away for 98 yard scoring run. This was the only T.D. for M.U.

MILTON UNION 32 RIVER VALLEY 14

Cliff Gleiter plunged two yards for the first score, ending a 57 yard march after the Redmen received the opening kickoff. Morehart rambled 82 yards for a second Quarterback T.D., then passing to Larry Roberts for the point. The Redmen increased their lead with a T.D. in the third quarter. Morehart passed 16 yards to Roger Bass. Morehart kicked the point. The drive covered 41 yards. Morehart ran 8 yards for another Milton T.D., this one early in the fourth period. Morehart was on the receiving end of Milton's last T.D. scoring on a pass from Gregg Garnett that covered 44 yards.

Union ended the 63 season with a 2-5-2 record.

"Queen Linda Hull"

"The Grand March"

King Michael Jones and Queen Linda Hull

"Blue Velvet" was the theme chosen for Milton Union's 1963 Homecoming. Senior Mike Jones, elected football captain and Homecoming King, chose Linda Hull for queen to help head the three day activities.

The first event--skit and bonfire--really started the school spirit. The skits this year by the students and faculty were the funniest and best ever.

The parade on Friday was larger than usual with lot of competitive spirit between clubs and classes. There was everything from skunks and dragons to hobos, rocket ships, cowboys, and Indians in this year's parade.

The Redmen played their homecoming game against Oregon Friday night. The scores were kept very close during the first half. The halftime show started with the introduction of Queen Linda and her court Karen Haugom, Nancy Davis, Sue Meyer and Carol Skelly. Linda was given a dozen red roses by Mr. Regez in behalf of the Student Council. The band then gave a show entitled "Calypso Holiday." The varsity got all the bad breaks in the second half and Oregon won our game 33-14.

The Homecoming Dance, Saturday night, closed the festivities. The new gym was beautifully decorated in hues of blue to correspond with the theme. Milton College Dance Band played and refreshments were served by the F.H.A. The court and King were presented and the Queen crowned by coach Carl Anderson. The others on the court elected by the varsity team were: Gary Morehart, Dennis Hulbert, Terry Astin and Bill Mullen.

The F.F.A. and F.H.A. presented to Milton Union a "White Christmas," December 21, 1963. The new gymnasium was decorated entirely in white; from the ceiling hung colorful Christmas decorations.

A white archway surrounded with white flocked evergreens led to the throne, where Mr. Anderson crowned Vickie Clark queen.

A refreshment center, separated from the dance floor, provided a place for weary dancers to refresh themselves.

The Milton College Dance Band furnished the music.

A Dance Into
"Hawaiian Paradise"

Queen Vickie Rhoades, King Michael Jones

The Junior-Senior Prom, April 27, 1963, was an elaboration of the theme "Hawaiian Paradise." Blues and greens conveyed the dance into a Hawaiian mood. The throne, an island of palm trees, plants and a grass hut bordered by a water fall, effectively created a native paradise.

A 250 Orchid Lei, flown from Hawaii, and a carnation garland crowned Vickie Rhoades queen. The members of the court each received a 50 orchid, round style lei.

The Milton College Dance Band provided music. The post prom was sponsored by the Kiwanis.

Candids of Indale

Indale in native costume

Indale Gizaw, 16, American Field service International Scholarship student from Addis Ababa, Ethiopia, has spent this last year with the William Nottingham family in Milton. His two new "brothers" have been Dean, a Senior, and Brent, a freshman. The son of an inspector to the Administration of Interior of Addis Ababa, Indale has three brothers and two sisters. His native language is Amharic. He is of the Orthodox faith, and attends one of many government schools. He plans to attend college after he returns to Ethiopia, and would like to become a lawyer or politician.

His favorite sport is soccer. In the beginning of the year, he ably demonstrated his skill at this sport in gym class. He also likes wrestling in the 112 pound class.

Almost everytime you see a smile and a wave in the hallway, you can be sure it is Indale. He has truly been a credit to his country and town.

Indale is Milton Unions first experience with an A.F.S. student.

Many clubs and organizations helped bring him to Milton. We hope that all our future exchange students will be as nice as you, Indale.

Class Will

We, the Class of 1964, being about to pass out of this sphere of education, in full possession of a crammed mind, well-trained memory, and almost superhuman understanding, do make and publish this, our last will and testament, hereby revoking and making void all former wills or promises by us at any time hereafter made, or mayhap, carelessly spoken, one to the other, as the thoughtless risk of an ill hour.

Class Prophecy

This is Scott Traynor, your reporter from the fabulous ultra-modern new gym of Milton Union High School. I am coming to you tonight from the reunion of the 1964 graduates of Milton Union. In the background we hear the tantalizing beat of the famed "Union Blues" Combo. Leader of the group, the versatile George Cash is giving the downbeat to his players, David "Crate" Applegate on the clarinet, Bob Fields on the tuba, and Barry Von Falkenstein on the drums. George, himself, on the saxophone. The singer traveling with the group is Robert Wenham, known in the musical world as "Rocking Robert."

I am now moving on to the beautifully decorated tables with the old familiar red and white stripes. Sitting at the table on my right is that talented newcomer to the stage, Linda Slauson, and her fellow actor, Gene Hill. They are patiently awaiting the return of their manager Elston Kreklow who is mulling through the crowd drumming up business for their latest film release, "Giants of Love." Moving on toward the end of the gym we hear the familiar voices of TERRY Astin, TERRY Carroll, TERRY Hilton who now formed the Terryton Trio. They are discussing a new idea with their advertising agent Jim Skaggs; they are auditioning for a female vocalist and are seriously considering Janet Bolac. As I move through the crowd I am surprised to see the dignified Mr. James Thompson. I didn't recognize him. "James, what are you engaged in now?"

"I am now engaged in revising Einstein's Theory on Relativity."

As I continue through the crowd, I see Kathy Carlson QUIETLY meditating in the corner. Gary Mawhinney, seems to be enjoying the silence, but he is worried that such silence may indicate a mortal illness. Across from me I see Richard Fanning, Ken Page, Larry Roberts, Dave Parr, David Schmaling, Jim Poteat, Don Van Altena at the Punch Bowl. Rumor has it that Don Day has spiked the punch. Joining them now at the punchbowl is Gary Rogers, that Multi-millionaire, and his blushing bride Pat. Holmes. They have an agreement by which Pat must clean the house at least once a week in order to claim her weekly allowance of $6,400. I will now switch you over to our outside reporter, Ruth Bingham.

Hello, this is your outside reporter, Ruth Bingham. A big Cadillac has just pulled up in front of me. Let's see who it is. Well, well, Stu Carlson and his finance, Pat Corkhill. Stu must be living high these days. Here comes Bill Mullen and Nancy Krause. But Wait! They're driving up in a tractor. "What happened, Bill?"

"My Mercury broke down, and Nancy thought she could fix it. She surely did and here we are."

A long black Olds with polished chrome pulls up and out steps Gary Nelson, village constable. With him is the newly initiated truant officer, Dennis Refvik. Gary says he's heard complaints about Polly Van Altena and her reckless driving.

Let's go uptown and see if the businessmen are about ready to join their former classmates at the reunion given in their honor.

I am now standing in Dennis Hulbert's dentist office, where he is attempting to extract Jean Wright's tooth. It seems Jean had a very bad toothache. Dennis's office is connected to Gary Thostenson's M.D.'s Office where Carol Murphy and Patti Mould, his nurses, are locking up. Farther up the street Wayne Wolters is auctioning off Sue Vien's guernseys. She's planning on buying Allen Pierce's herd of Holsteins because her cows didn't pay off.

Walking down Main Street we see Diane Brown, Barb Brandt, and Bev Campbell coming out of Murph McCann's Butcher Shop. The next business place is Cheryl LaVigne's Beauty Salon. As I look in the window, I see Suzanne Davidson sitting under two hair dryers. Her hair is now down to her ankles and it takes two of them to dry it. As I continue down the street I pass Bob Berger's Pharmacy. I see that Vickie Clark is inside purchasing nerve pills. I understand she is teaching Home Ec. at Union. In the back of the store sits Gary Morehart and Dean Nottingham sipping two tall, cool glasses of water. I understand that their own personal doctor, Willie Haines, ordered them to keep on their special diet which excluded any beverage stronger than water. I am greeted by the bank president's wife, Sherry Derr as I enter the bank, I see two trustworthy tellers, John Janes and Steve Haakenson. John is waiting on Mary Godfrey, who at the present moment seems to be a little financially embarrassed. As we advance to Virginia Wenslaff's scrumptious cafe, we find Diane Whitehead and Sherry Thompson fighting over Gary Kersten, who has only the money to pay for one of their cokes. Meanwhile the Borgwardt cousins, James and Janice, are twisting to the latest Tom Pietrick record. Across the street from the cafe is Chuck Flynn's Fallacious Service Station where Raymond Drays is busy customizing a souped up coupe' belonging to Phyllis Nelson.

Just around the corner is Jan Watt's laundromat. It seems that Joann Frank, JoAnn Diedrick and Patsy Budden are having trouble getting their dresses cleaned in time for the reunion.

As I walk back to the high school, I see Nancy Perry driving up in a "beat up" Ford. Come to think of it, I read that she was in an accident. Nancy is the new Ag teacher and was on her way to an F.F.A. meeting when Janet McQuillen, driving a Volkswagon, sideswiped her. Hey, there seems to be a commotion over in the corner. Jim Eliason and Ken Pastorius, who are well established as a law team are talking with their client, Bonnie Swenson, who is pressing charges against her boss, Bill Berger. It seems Bill wants more than one secretary because he has two knees. Then I met Steve Carlson who is now coaching a girls' basketball team; he says that he has fallen in love with three of the star players, Barb Lyman, Julia Gower, and Mary Lou McBride.

Let's drive up by the school constructed for the community in 1965. There's our old classmate, Steve Weeks, he wanted to be sure and get into the new school . . . He really goes for those younger gals. Boy, the place is pretty beat up. Richard Barlass was hired for janitor. Let's ask him about the shape of the place.

Back at the reunion we see high fashion models, Carol Lehr and Doreen Schumaker coming in with their manager, Vickie Rhoades. Vic tells us the fashions this year are simply beautiful. High boots and knickers are the rage. We notice Vickie has a beautiful outfit on--orange polka dot blouse and red printed skirt with high heeled sneakers. 'Course you know Vic--she's always in style.'

Scott announces he has just received word from Mike Jones's airport east of Milton, that the distinguished UN foreign minister from Ethiopia, Indale Gizaw, is arriving shortly and when he does arrive, Les Marzahl will pick him up in his limousine and the bottles will pop!!!
